Weekly News Letter

Last Wednesday's social was at Jimmy Mac's.

You know, the food and service are always excellent at Jimmy Mac's. The prices are not too bad and the atmosphere is like any road house you might wander into, down home and personal. The only problem is the house keeping is not the best. There were peanut shells all over the floor. 😊

Tomorrow's WA-A social will be at the Dairy Queen in Renton on 108th and Petrovitsky.

Bring your ideas for next year's rides and visitations. We really need a good ride somewhere every month if possible. I'm open to all your ideas.

This past Saturday, Bill O. joined me visiting WA-E. Bill and Caryl stepped down as Chapter Directors. John and Barb Smith stepped up as the new Chapter Directors of WA-E.

On Sunday, Bill O. and I went to Chapter WA-I. Following that meeting, we went to Dottie Yarnell's house for joint CPR training class with WA-I participants. Dottie does a great job as a facilitator. Thanks Dottie.

JANUARY GATHERING: JANUARY 24, 2015, Old Country Buffet, Kent.

In the past, the January gathering has been well attended for a couple of reasons. First, because we have our end of the year Ride Card drawing and second because Chapter WA-I has their Casino night. What does Casino night have to do with our gathering you ask?

Well, Chapters from the dry side of Washington come over the night before to spend the night with the intention of participating in Casino Night. Since they are already in the area, they come for a visit and have breakfast with us. It's a Win-Win for everyone. They have something to do and friends to visit on Saturday morning and we get the pleasure of their company.

RIDE CARDS:

I hope you got your ride card to me in time. I have all the tabulations completed, ride cards folded in envelopes with the proper number of tickets ready for the meeting on Saturday.

As you should already know, the ride card has two sections the first being mileage on your motorcycle of choice and the second being a list of the events. The 2015 Ride card has all these events and more on it. If you did not receive a 2015 card on New Year's Day, see me at the meeting for your card.
